Marketing Remarks: Creekfront acreage for sale! These wooded 5.59 acres are just waiting for your vision to choose the perfect home site. Approximately 209 feet of creek frontage gives you plenty of opportunities to play in the water. The property is nice and level down by the creek, and then slopes up to high ground. The slope is gentle in places, giving you multiple possible building sites either on the hill or down at the bottom. Lots of mature timber on the property including alder, maple, fir, and cedar. Well and septic needed, some clearing has been done. Owner financing available with 40K down. Cheap Lewis County living, with Rochester zip code and schools. No CCR's, no restrictions, in a development-friendly county. What are you waiting for?
